

Runoff Reduction!

Slow down runoff with landscaping to let it cool.
Use gravel and permeable pavement where possible to allow rainfall to infiltrate.

Hot asphalt and pavement warms stormwater before it reaches local streams raising stream temperatures and carrying other pollutants. Higher stream temperatures stress aquatic organisms and reduce available oxygen.

University of Kentucky
College of Agriculture,
Food and Environment
Cooperative Extension Service