

Leaves provide nutrients to your lawn, organic matter to your soil and beneficial carbon to your compost pile.

Don't Kick Them to the Curb

...but leaves left in the street clog storm drains, cause flooding, and contribute to nutrient pollution in our streams.

Mulch 'em, Mow 'em, Mix 'em in the compost and keep them out of the storm sewer system!

University of Kentucky
College of Agriculture,
Food and Environment
Cooperative Extension Service