

They're Falling!

Leaves and grass clippings in the street:

- contribute to water pollution
- clog storm drains, causing flooding

...but when kept in the yard, they are a FREE source of nutrients for your lawn and garden.

Sweep it Up, Kentucky!

Do your part!

Keep lawn debris out of the street.

Keep storm drains free of debris.

University of Kentucky
College of Agriculture,
Food and Environment
Cooperative Extension Service