

Grass clippings are a free source of nutrients for your lawn.

They rapidly degrade and provide organic matter that improves your soil. Remember! Keep clippings on the lawn and off the street to avoid nutrient pollution to our streams.

Leave 'em on the Lawn

Did you know?

Grass clippings provide up to 25%
of your lawn's
nutrient needs.

Save time. Skip the bagging!

University of Kentucky
College of Agriculture,
Food and Environment
Cooperative Extension Service