

Mulch placed above the root flare increases moisture against the trunk. This can be a pathway for insects and disease and decrease tree health.

No More Mulch Mounds

Help your trees reach their full potential.

- Keep space between the trunk and mulch
- Spread mulch to the edge of the canopy, if possible
- Cover root area with 3"- 6" of mulch

Cooperative
Extension Service