

Looking for gardening inspiration? Install a pollinator garden using Kentucky native plants. They have few pest issues, require no fertilizer, and need little watering once established.

Plant for Pollinators

Grow for pollinator success:

- Provide habitat and nesting sites
- Grow plants in clusters
- Plant for continuous growing season

University of Kentucky
College of Agriculture,
Food and Environment
Cooperative Extension Service