

Soil testing is an important first step in sustainable lawn care. It is an analysis of your soil that helps target the nutrient needs of your plants.

Start with a Soil Test

Remember!

Excess, improperly applied, or improperly timed fertilizer and chemical applications are not helpful for plants and damage the environment.